

Andy Wozniacki – Biography

---

Andy Wozniacki joined Roush Industries, Inc. in 1990 and was appointed Controller in 1991. He joined the company's Executive Committee in 1999, and became the Chief Financial Officer of Roush Enterprises, Inc. in 2001.

Mr. Wozniacki's responsibilities involve managing the accounting, purchasing, and IT operations of Roush Enterprises, Inc., with financial executives from the company's subsidiaries: Roush Industries, Roush Manufacturing, Roush Racing and Roush Performance Products and Roush Life Sciences, reporting to him. He maintains banking relationships, evaluates new business opportunities, and is involved with corporate planning and development. Mr. Wozniacki serves on the Board of Directors of Roush Fenway Racing and Roush & Yates Racing Engines.

Prior to joining Roush, Mr. Wozniacki held Controller positions with various companies, including Stellar Industries, Inc. and HiCraft Engineering, Inc. He has over 25 years of accounting experience, including 7 years in public accounting and 20 years in the automotive industry.

Mr. Wozniacki received his BBA in Professional Accounting from Walsh College in 1981 and became a CPA in 1985.